Small Hope For
Cigaret Addicts

Perhaps the most painless way to stop smoking that has been invented was disclosed by a British doctor the other day, although it wasn't original with him.

Dr. C. L. Anand said he saw a "decoction" of oats being fed to opium addicts in India to help them break their habit. He tried it on a number of volunteer cigarette addicts in England, where he claimed it helped substantially.

While he refused to give the recipe, Anand said the secret is to whip up a potent mash of oats and feed it liberally to the victims of the noxious weed. Obviously, it keeps them too drunk to light up most of the time. —Montgomery (Ala.) Advertiser

The Gain In Forestry

This country's forests are growing about nine cubic feet of timber for every eight cubic feet harvested. In the last 15 years, we harvested 197 billion cubic feet of timber, but growth amounted to 246 billion cubic feet.

That bit of information comes from the American Forest Institute. We hope it dashes a bit of sobriety into the faces of those who are disposed to use ecology for selfish political and revolutionary gains.

Conservation, preservation, and learning to live constructively in harmony with nature are important. That is what the discipline of economics is all about. But some groups and individuals push love of nature so far that it becomes hate of people. They strive to halt progress, to repeal the Twentieth Century. We even encountered one chap who frowned on cutting of Christmas trees. "Needless taking of life," he said. However, he admitted that he eats lettuce. —Gastonia (N.C.) Gazette

News Media Controls Doubtful

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate-House conferees on the bill extending President Nixon's wage and price control powers today threw out a provision exempting press and broadcasting media from the controls.

Sen. Alan Cranston, D-Calif., author of the provision adopted on the Senate floor 50 to 36, reported this to newsmen while the conference still was in progress.

Cranston said a Treasury representative told the conference the administration did not plan to enforce the controls against the communications media.

The senator quoted James Smith, a Treasury aide for congressional relations, as saying it was impossible to measure productivity in these industries and that it would be too complicated to try to enforce the controls.

The Cranston amendment covered newspapers, wire services, radio and television broadcasters, magazine and book publishers.

Indian Troops Closing on Dacca

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Indian troops were reported within 15 miles of the East Pakistani capital of Dacca Sunday night and advancing from three directions.

Senior Pakistani officers in Dacca predicted the assault on the city would begin by Tuesday night. They said their defenses were disorganized and crumbling. But Pakistan's military chief in the East, Lt. Gen. A. K. Niazi, was said to be determined not to surrender.

A battalion of Indian paratroopers was dropped somewhere north of Dacca on Saturday night. An Indian military spokesman said they advanced on the city Sunday night after beating off a counterattack during which they killed 23 Pakistani soldiers and took 12 prisoners.

The spokesman was unable to say whether the paratroopers had linked up with another Indian column advancing from the Meghna River to the northeast. These troops were reported to have taken Narsingdi, 25 miles from the capital, and to be "now advancing fast towards Dacca."

The main drive on Dacca is from the southeast, and some reports placed it near Daudkandi, 30 miles away.

East Pakistani guerrillas in Dacca and its suburbs were said to be awaiting the signal for a general uprising, but so far no fighting was reported in the city itself.

All 16 Pakistani F86 Sabre jets in the East have been destroyed, and there is little artillery and less than a brigade of 30,000 to defend the city.

Elsewhere in East Pakistan, heavy fighting was reported around the army base at the southern river port of Khulna, about 125 miles southwest of Dacca; in the northern Dinajpur sector, and in the Hilli area in the northwest.

Indian military spokesmen reported hundreds of Pakistanis were surrendering in the Comilla sector, about 50 miles east of Dacca, but Pakistan denied this.

A map in India's Eastern military headquarters in Calcutta indicated about two thirds of East Pakistan is in Indian hands.

As the Indians drew close to Dacca, three British planes on Sunday evacuated more than 400 foreigners from the city in a tense four-hour airlift. They were flown to Calcutta, and among them were about 125 Americans.

Some of the refugees arriving in Calcutta said some foreigners who wanted to leave were left behind for lack of space. They reported that one man clung to the door of the last plane and fell to the ground as the plane taxied slowly along the runway.

Newsmen said among those who stayed in the city were 17 American officials, a few U.N. and Red Cross workers and missionaries and about 50 newsmen, a third of them American.

Indian planes resumed bombing the airport 15 minutes after a six-hour cease-fire for the evacuation.

Jury Fails to Reach Decision in Murder Trial

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Dist. Atty. Lowell Jensen says he has not decided whether Black Panther leader Huey P. Newton will be tried a fourth time for the 1967 slaying of a policeman.

For the second time, a jury failed to reach a verdict in Newton's case Saturday, and a mistrial was declared. His conviction of voluntary manslaughter in his first trial—which was on a murder charge—in 1968 was overturned on grounds of improper jury instruction.

Superior Court Judge Lyle E. Cook set Wednesday for presiding Judge William J. Hayes to assign a new trial date if the state presses its case in the Oct. 28, 1967, slaying of officer John Frey during a street battle.

"We have not made any decision," Jensen said Sunday.

He added he had not talked yet with his assistant, Donald Whyte, who prosecuted the case.

The jury foreman, Doris Leonard, said that after three days deliberation, the eight-woman, four-man panel was split 6-6 and decided it could reach no verdict.

There were no blacks on the jury.

Red China Unexpectedly Releases 2 Americans, One Held for 19 Years

Nixon to Bargain Hard With French

By DAVID J. PAINE
Associated Press Writer
HONG KONG (AP) — Communist China today freed two Americans, a man held captive for 19 years and a woman captured on a yacht in 1968. The pair crossed into Hong Kong and left on a flight for the United States.

The Peking government announced it had reduced the life sentence of another American and that a fourth American prisoner committed suicide more than two years ago.

Richard Fecteau, 43, a civilian Army employee from Lynn, Mass., captured during the Korean war, and Mary Ann Harbert crossed the border in the early afternoon. A Royal Air Force helicopter flew them to Kai Tak airport, and there they boarded a U.S. military plane for the United States, a spokesman for the Hong Kong government said.

It was not known where the plane was taking them.

Peking announced that the life sentence being served by John T. Downey, 41, of New Britain, Conn., had been commuted to five years starting from the date of commutation. That date was not announced, but presumably it was recent.

The fourth American listed by Peking today was Gerald Ross McLaughlin. The New China News Agency said he was captured with Miss Harbert aboard a yacht in Chinese territorial waters north of Hong Kong on April 21, 1968. The Communist agency said he committed suicide on March 7, 1969, while under investigation.

Peking's announcement was the first word of the capture of Miss Harbert and McLaughlin, and no information about them was available in Hong Kong. Informed sources said American authorities here had not known they were in China.

Two other Americans are known to be still imprisoned in China: Air Force Capt. Phillip E. Smith, whose plane was shot down over the Gulf of Tonkin in September 1965, and Lt. Robert J. Flynn, a U.S. Navy pilot presumed shot down over China's Kwangsi Province in August 1967.

Navy Lt. Joseph Dunn, whose plane was shot down off China's Hainan Island in February 1968, is listed as missing on the Chinese mainland.

Hijackers Fail in Attempt to Reach Cuba

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica (AP) — Three men armed with guns and knives hijacked a Nicaraguan jetliner Sunday and directed it to Cuba. But when they landed in San Jose to refuel, the 49 passengers were let off, the five crew members escaped, and Costa Rican national guardsmen flushed the hijackers out with tear gas and killed one of them.

One of the passengers, Alfonso Lovo Blandon, the son of Nicaragua's agriculture minister, was wounded by a bullet reportedly fired by one of the hijackers. He was hospitalized in satisfactory condition.

The Lanica Airlines BAC111 was on a flight from Miami to Managua, the capital of Nicaragua. The three hijackers boarded at San Salvador.

Upon landing in San Jose, the passengers were permitted to leave, and President Jose Figueres of Costa Rica told the hijackers from the airport control tower there would be no reprisals if they released the crew unharmed.

The hijackers refused, and the national guardsmen opened up with tear gas. The crew members jumped out of a window, and as the hijackers left the plane one of them opened fire, killing him. He was identified as Paul Arana, believed to be a Nicaraguan.

Shortage of Gas Concerns Pryor

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. David Pryor, D-Ark., says he will attempt to meet this week with John Nassikas, chairman of the Federal Power Commission, to discuss a gas shortage in the De Queen area.

Pryor said he would ask for the meeting because he feared the FPC was attempting to "insulate itself within its bureaucratic framework" and delay making a decision on the problem until the spring "when it is too late."

The gas company at De Queen has asked the FPC to order Louisiana-Nevada Transit Co. to supply more gas for residents in the area. Louisiana-Nevada has asked the FPC to approve its curtailment policy.

Pryor announced his intention of meeting with Nassikas in a letter to officials of Ideal Basic Industries, Inc., of Denver, Colo., parent firm of Louisiana-Nevada Transit. In the letter, Pryor asked that the priorities of Louisiana-Nevada be reordered so that persons in the De Queen area would have sufficient gas during the winter.

Louisiana-Nevada sells gas to the gas company at De Queen, which provides gas to homes and schools at Mena, Horatio, Lockesburg and other small communities. Louisiana-Nevada also has contracts to sell gas to several industries in the area, including a cement-manufacturing plant owned by Louisiana-Nevada.

In the letter, Pryor said: "I find it totally unconscionable that you, as a high official of the parent organization of Louisiana-Nevada Transit Co., could sit back and allow many of our citizens of Southwest Arkansas... to find themselves placed in a position of being completely without gas for the winter months that lie ahead. What makes this case even more unbelievable is that by your actions you seemingly put your Ideal Cement Co.'s success on a higher priority level than the anguish of helpless and defenseless citizens."

All Around Town

December 13, 1971 at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Jim Pruden, state president of the Republican women, attended a meeting of executives of the Republican party held in Little Rock last weekend.

One of 21 Magnolia High School students inducted into the Mu Alpha Theta, national honorary mathematics club at a special assembly recently was Daniel Shapley. Daniel, 16, and a junior, was born in Hope and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hilton Shapley, were reared here. His grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John Shapley of Rt. 3, Hope and Mrs. Pearl Matties of 218 North Ferguson St. and the late Albert Taber.

Members of the John Cain Chapter, DAR, mailed a large box of beautifully wrapped Christmas gifts for the long-term patients at Ft. Roots V.A. Hospital in North Little Rock. Included were shaving cream, lotion, talcum, socks, handkerchiefs, candy, tooth paste, tooth brushes, facial tissues, jigsaw puzzles and various other items. This is a relatively new activity for the local Chapter, but one which is expected to continue and increase in future years.

The weekly City Police report shows seven traffic violations... six license violations... one liquor... seven booked for drunkenness... four for driving while intoxicated... one for disturbing the peace... one charged with assault and battery... two with burglary... two for larceny... two for shoplifting... three charged with illegal cohabitation... two charged with discharging firearms inside the city limits... two charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor... one for threatening an officer and insane persons picked up... there were four wrecks during the week bringing the year's total to 385 with 82 persons injured and four deaths resulting.

The final deer season of the year opened Monday and will continue through Saturday, December 18.

Whitfield Masonic Lodge No. 239 will confer a Fellowcraft Degree Tuesday, December 14 at 7 p.m. Masons are asked to note the earlier meeting time.

The Hope Junior and Senior High School Bands will present its Winter Concert in the High School Auditorium, Monday.

Funeral Rites for Policeman Struck by Car

FORDYCE, Ark. (AP) — A second funeral service was set here today for Houston, Tex., policeman Claude Ronald Beck, 24, who was killed Friday in a traffic accident.

Services were held for the officer here Saturday.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Beck of Fordyce.

Beck, who had been married 18 days, was killed Friday while investigating a hit and run accident.

Police said he was struck on a Houston freeway by a camper driven by Walter Meyer, 47, of Houston. Meyer has been charged with murder.

Beck worked during his off-duty hours with underprivileged children in the Mexican-American and black sections of the city. He was a native of Warren, Ark., and a graduate of Fordyce, Ark. High School.

Congress May Weather Adjourn by Mid-week

By WALTER R. MEARS
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The current session of Congress faces a final controversy over a familiar issue, foreign aid, as House and Senate press toward adjournment and a month's vacation.

Congressional leaders plan to quit for the year before mid-week—and Senate Republicans are urging a drive to wind up things tonight.

Four must measures await final action but only one, a temporary settlement of the long deadlock over foreign aid, is likely to force much delay.

A half-dozen senators may have something to say on that measure.

Sens. J.W. Fulbright, D-Ark., Alan Cranston, D-Calif., and Stuart Symington, D-Mo., reportedly agreed Saturday to stage a debate against the measure. That could block action, and adjournment.

The measure they are opposing is a resolution to authorize continued foreign-aid spending until March 15, at a rate equal to about $2.6 billion a year.

The regular appropriation for foreign aid has not passed Congress because a bill to authorize the spending is still deadlocked between House and Senate.

The issue behind the stalemate is a Senate amendment, sponsored by Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield, calling for total U.S. withdrawal from Indochina within six months, provided U.S. prisoners of war are released.

The administration and its House allies are adamantly opposed to that amendment; Senate negotiators have refused to budge on the issue, and the authorization bill is therefore blocked.

To get around that barrier, Senate leaders agreed to consideration of the resolution for temporary aid financing, with the whole issue coming due again in the next session.

The House will act first today on the resolution, which includes $385 million earmarked for assistance to Israel, an item popular in the Senate.

The aid settlement could come undone if critics seek to delay a vote by talking. But the pressure to vote and quit for the year is likely to be persuasive.

In addition to foreign aid, Congress must deal with:

—An extension to April 30, 1973, of President Nixon's economic control authority. Senate and House conferees went to work today on a compromise version of that legislation.

—A $71-billion defense appropriations bill.

—A bill appropriating funds to run the District of Columbia. When those measures are out of the way, Congress can quit until Jan. 18.

Showers to Return to Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Some shower activity may return to the southern portion of Arkansas Tuesday.

A cold front, located this morning in the far West, is expected to move into northwest Arkansas by Tuesday morning. As the front passes through the northwest portion of the state it is expected to be dry, but returning moisture may produce some precipitation in the southern portion of the state.

A fast-moving, but rather weak front passed through Arkansas Sunday producing a few clouds and gusty winds. The front did create a few light showers in southeast Arkansas before leaving the state.

Fair skies are expected today with highs in the mid 50s north to mid 60s south. Highs Tuesday should be in the mid 50s to low 60s. Highs Sunday ranged from the low 50s in the northwest portion of the state to the low 70s in other areas.

Lows tonight should be in the upper 30s to low 40s.

Overnight lows include Fayetteville 25, Harrison 35, Jonesboro 38, Pine Bluff 39, Texarkana 38, El Dorado 37, Memphis 39, Little Rock 37 and Fort Smith 36.

None of the reporting stations recorded precipitation during the 24-hour period ended at 6 a.m. today.

Chides Bumpers About Women Employment

HOPE, Ark. (AP)—The president of the Arkansas Federation of Republican Women says Gov. Dale Bumpers may be committing "political suicide" if he does not take steps to increase the number of women employed in state government.

Mrs. Jerri Pruden of Hope made the statement Saturday in response to a report that the number of women employed in the executive branch had declined 1 per cent since Bumpers took office in January.

"Dale Bumpers may not be a 'male chauvinist,' but he certainly hasn't done anything to benefit the female citizens of this state," Mrs. Pruden said. "For a politician who depends on a handsome face and a broad smile to get elected, he is committing political suicide by incurring the wrath of women."

Professional Conduct Secy.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Executive Committee of the Arkansas Bar Association says it supports a move to establish a full-time executive secretary to the Committee on Professional Conduct.

The Arkansas Supreme Court, in a Nov. 15 per curiam order, increased the Supreme Court license fee from $2 to $17 to fund the position.

The executive secretary will hear and investigate complaints on violations of the rules of professional conduct.

The Executive Committee said it expected an executive secretary to be hired shortly after Jan. 1.

Big Banks Again Cut Prime Rates

NEW YORK (AP) — Morgan Guaranty Trust Co., the nation's fifth-largest bank, today cut its prime lending rate from 5½ to 5¼ per cent, effective immediately.

The prime rate is the interest charged by banks to their best corporate customers and reductions make money more readily available to businesses. Morgan Guaranty said the cut reflected its evaluation of "money market conditions and loan demand, which has been soft."

Morgan Guaranty and most other commercial banks had cut their prime rates from 5½ to 5¼ Nov. 4. Other banks have adopted a so-called floating base rate system, subject to weekly review, to replace the

IRS Answers Questions About Phase II Freeze

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Internal Revenue Service released Sunday the following additional list of questions and answers in explanation of decisions and regulations by the Cost of Living Council, the Pay Board and the Price Commission:

Q: May a person who buys products for resale increase his price on such products if the costs of such products to him have increased because of the 10 per cent import surcharge?

A: Yes, such a person may increase his prices to offset the cost increases because of the 10 per cent import surcharge regardless of the effects of such an increase on his profit margin and without prenotifying or reporting such increases to the Price Commission.

Q: Did the Pay Board's delegation to the Construction Industry Stabilization Committee include the authority to grant approval on requests for wage and salary increases to employees in the building and construction industry not covered by collective bargaining agreements?

A: No.

Q: How can a corporation, individual proprietorship, or partnership obtain a ruling that a newly established or amended pension or profit-sharing plan does not exceed the 5.5 percent annual aggregate limitation?

A: IRS local service and compliance offices issue rulings of this type upon written request.

Q: Under Regulations 101.33 (b), it would appear that agricultural workers who earn less than $1.60 an hour are exempt from Phase 2 pay guidelines. Would a wage rise for such employees from $1.50 hr. to $2.00 hr. similarly be exempt under Phase 2 guidelines?

A: No. This initial wage increase would be exempt from the guidelines only up to $1.60 an hour. Once wages are increased to $1.60 per hour, further increases become subject to the guidelines.

Q: What is the base pay figure for any such further increase?

A: $1.60.

Bodies of Two Found Near Corning

CORNING, Ark. (AP) — The bodies of Charles Ray Bonner, 16, of Corning and Elsie Mae Webb, 18, of Aurora, Ill., were found Sunday night in a parked car about five miles west of Corning.

Deputy Sheriff Glenn Archer of Clay County said the two apparently died of carbon monoxide poisoning. Archer said Ray Bonner, father of Charles Ray Bonner, found the car on a county road. Archer said the elder Bonner reported that the car's motor was running at the time.

Archer said the couple was last seen late Saturday night. He placed the time of death as early Sunday.

Some Doubt About Blast at Orphanage

DACCA, East Pakistan (AP) — Doubt remains as to the responsibility for the aerial bombing of an orphanage last week.

It was taken for granted at first that the bombs came from an Indian plane, since India had been bombing constantly in the area where the orphanage was situated.

Then India denied the orphanage bombing, and some Bengalis claimed to have proof that the Pakistan army had made the assault in an effort to embarrass India. Support for this was doubtful, and other sources suggested that guerrilla forces may have been responsible.

Price Group Turns to Rent and Health Costs

By BROOKS JACKSON
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Price Commission is moving toward setting guidelines for residential rent and health costs, which have been in economic limbo since the freeze ended four weeks ago.

A commission spokesman said Chairman C. Jackson Grayson Jr. put the two items on the agenda for the panel's regular weekly meeting today and Tuesday, although still awaiting recommendations from two advisory panels.

"He just doesn't think we can wait any longer," the spokesman said. Announcement of any decision probably would come late Tuesday or Wednesday.

Meanwhile, a Pay Board spokesman said that panel soon will issue long-awaited forms for reporting big wage agreements. Reports are due by the end of the month, but so far the board has failed to decide what paperwork should be involved. However, the Pay Board was reported far from agreement on clarifying what special circumstances will justify raises higher than 5.5 per cent a year. A proposal placed before the board last week would require advance approval of any agreements that exceed that general limit, no matter how few workers are covered.

Both pay and price panels have caused grumbling because of delays in knotting the many loose ends still flapping from post-freeze wage and price controls. "Somehow we can't seem to settle anything without a big argument," one Pay Board participant complained last week.

Congress, which also has been accused of stalling on economic matters, nearly wrapped up that work last week. It passed tax-cut legislation which President Nixon signed into law, and sent a wage-price control bill to a joint conference committee of the Senate and House to work out a final compromise. Also last week the Pay Board approved the new railroad signalmen's agreement, scheduled a review of a pattern-setting contract in the aerospace industry and patched up a spat with a subordinate panel that regulates pay in the construction trades.

The Price Commission was relatively dormant, approving a 3.6-per-cent average increase for all U.S. Steel mill products while awaiting word from advisory panels on health costs and rent.

Rents present a particularly tough problem for the Price Commission. Commercial, farm and industrial rents are free from any federal controls, but residential rents have remained subject to stringent freeze rules pending Rent Advisory Board recommendations.

The Price Commission also is awaiting recommendations from the Committee on the Health Services Industry.

Burglary Conviction Upheld by Court

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Supreme Court today upheld the conviction of Bobby Joe Harrington of North Little Rock on a charge of attempted burglary.

The court, in an opinion by Associate Justice Lyle Brown, rejected Harrington's contention that reversible error was committed in his trial when the prosecution asked him if he had been convicted of two other specific crimes.

Brown said in the unanimous opinion that when a defendant takes the stand in his own defense he may, on cross-examination, be asked about other crimes of which he has been convicted or which he may have committed.

Harrington's credibility was a crucial issue in the case, Brown wrote, since policemen testified that they saw him running away from a building where a burglary had been attempted and Harrington contended they were lying.

Harrington, 27, and James Milton Sipes, 31, of North Little Rock made news in August when they were allegedly beaten by a patrolman after being arrested Aug. 9 on the roof of a Little Rock restaurant.

The incident resulted in the dismissal of Little Rock patrolmen Doyle Webb, 30, Ronnie E. Phillips, 24, and Raymond L. Miller, 26. Circuit Judge Tom F. Digby Friday upheld the firing of Webb and Phillips. Miller was found dead of a gunshot wound which was said to have been self-inflicted.

In other cases, the Supreme Court:

—Affirmed a Conway County Circuit Court judgment of $23,550 for Loyd Coffman for 14 acres of land taken by the state Highway Commission for Interstate 40.

—Reversed a Pope County Circuit Court judgment that Albert B. Allen was permanently and totally disabled by a back injury while employed by Bibler Bros. Lumber Co.

—Upheld a Pulaski County Circuit Court judgment of $3,909 in a suit Rock Steel Building Co. filed against R. D. Elgin and Co., Inc., to recover under a stockholders' contract certain field costs plus 10 per cent.

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — ABC and CBS came up with a couple of better-than-average action feature films over the weekend, not gems but solid, well-paced crime stories.

The first had bite and cynicism in its approach and some excellent acting. The other was an ingenious story with an unexpected O. Henry twist for a windup.

CBS's Friday night feature was "Mingo's back in Town," adapted from a book by E. Richard Johnson, who is a convict still serving time.

It was a violent story—plenty of gun play and fighting—with a central character who was a professional killer. Besides Mingo—very well and almost sympathetically played by Joe Don Baker—there were colorful underworld characters with names like Boom-Boom and Trembles.

Sally Field was particularly effective and touching as a waif-like girl emotionally involved with Mingo the killer. In spite of a complicated plot involving counterfeit plates and some stagey gimmicks the 90 minutes had a kind of raw vitality and validity.

"See the Man Run" on ABC's "Movie of the Weekend" Saturday began with a fading, alcoholic actor receiving a telephone call from a man who called him "Dr. Spencer" and says he has kidnapped the doctor's daughter and wanted $50,000 for her return. The kidnaper obviously had the wrong telephone number, but the actor, egged on by his wife, worked out a scheme to collect $150,000 from the doctor, pay off the kidnaper and get away with a $100,000 profit for himself.

Robert Culp played the weak, emotional actor with proper theatrical flourishes and Angie Dickinson did very well as his strong-willed wife. After everything had worked out pretty much according to plan, along came the snapper ending. It was an excellent script and the whole 90 minutes played very well.

CBS's "60 Minutes" devoted about half of its Sunday night program to the question of offering amnesty to the thousands of American draft dodgers and deserters living in Canada. Asserting that as the Vietnam war continues to wind down, the subject will arise frequently, Mike Wallace reported from a Thanksgiving Day gathering of expatriates in Montreal. In an informal show of hands poll in a crowded room, only four indicated that they would return to the United States if they could.

Wallace then interviewed the family and fellow townsmen of one young ex-Marine who would like to come home. In the small Connecticut community, Wallace found wide and violent differences of opinion on granting amnesty.

Homemakers Pool Ideas on Yule Decorations

Extension Homemakers from 11 of the 17 clubs in Hempstead County met to get ideas on preparing the home for the Christmas holidays. Some of group are pictured above taking part in the annual program.

Centerville and Rocky Mound Clubs prepared 'homemade' refreshments. Melrose Club made all the homemakers 'registered representatives' for Christmas, Southeast Club decorated the tree.

Sharing Is Part of Being Homemaker

Christmas...is sharing—Extension Homemaker leaders provided an air for Christmas feeling. Pictured left to right: Mrs. Ernest Graham led Christmas Carols (assisted by pianist Mrs. C.G. Carmichael); Mrs. Lyle Allen told the "Greatest Story Ever Shared"; Mrs. Lawrence Easterling expressed feelings for sharing happy Christmas for children at Arkansas Children's Colony in Arkadelphia—gifts brought were for the colony boys and girls; Mrs. Ivan Bright, E.H. Council President, introduced an afternoon of sharing.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

POSER FOR A LIBERAL HOSTESS
Dear Helen:

We have good friends who aren't married but live together. They recently moved to another state, where we visited them last summer. They're completely open about their relationship, stating that for them marriage is unnecessary.

The rest of our friends aren't that liberal. Here's our problem: this couple will visit us over the holidays. We have only one extra bedroom which they expect to share. Do I imply to our other friends that "Jim" is sleeping on the couch; or do I insist that he sleep on the couch for appearance sake; or do I just bull it through and shrug my shoulders? —MODERN HOSTESS

Dear Mod Hostess:
To put on an act for the benefit of people who already know the facts is embarrassing, silly—and futile. Let your friends sleep wherever they wish. It's their decision, not yours. (Nor is it any of those other friends' business!)

Dear Helen:
Many young people voted in the last election and probably did their best to bone up on the issues before going into the booths.

This is directed to those who were like the young lady ahead of me. When the election clerk started to tell her how the machine worked, she said, "Oh yes, I know about the lever."

Then she went into the booth, pulled the handle and immediately pulled it back again, jet fighter apparently opened accidentally.

The presents were scattered throughout north Portland. Police were alerted, but they said no presents had been recovered.

opening the curtains. The clerk questioned her about such speed. "I was just practicing," she replied. "I'll go back and vote now."

"I'm afraid you've lost your vote," said the clerk. "You're depriving me of my rights, blah—blah—blah—" On she went. "I'll stay here till the place closes!" she wailed.

This girl held up the line, caused unnecessary commotion, and finally an officer had to escort her from the building. All because of her ignorance.

My point is: young voters should not only read up on issues and personalities before going to the polls, but also study carefully the mockup of the voting machine OUTSIDE the booth, and follow instructions. And if they aren't sure—they'd better ask!

Voting isn't a lark. It's serious business. —E.B.
Dear E.:
Right!

While we're on the subject, have you heard of FRONTLASH, an organization devoted primarily to registering the non-voting segment of the 11.5 million newly enfranchised 18-to-21-year-olds in the United States?

The big registration push in colleges and universities has made most STUDENTS poll-conscious. But the "invisible majority"—young marrieds, blue collar workers, high school or community college drop-outs—are hard to reach, and often not particularly interested in politics unless they're given the right impetus. Frontlash workers fan out into the communities, especially in low income and minority areas, and show people there how important their vote is.

Almost two-thirds of the 18-to-21-year-olds in this country do not attend college. Many of these will not register to vote unless someone inspires them. If youth wants a good showing at the polls next November, then the politically active should get off campus and start campaigns where "the awakening" hasn't yet hit. —H.

Country Club Dessert-Bridge
A dessert-bridge was held at the Hope Country Club on Thursday, December 9 with signs of the season in evidence throughout the clubhouse. Grasshopper pie and lemon pie were served with coffee before bridge was played at 5 tables.

High scorer for the afternoon was Mrs. George Frazier, and second high was Mrs. Claud Garner. The game prize went to Mrs. E.E. Wassell. Out-of-town guests were Misses Constance and Alice Garanto of Luray, Va. Hostesses were Mrs. Wayne Russell and Mrs. Tom Hays, Jr.

Pharmacists Christmas Banquet
The Hempstead County Pharmacists' Association held its annual Christmas Banquet at Perry's Restaurant Friday night. After the dinner all those present joined in singing Christmas Carols led by Mrs. Paul Morgan and accompanied by Dr. James W. Branch on the organ.

Guests of the pharmacists and their wives this year were the physicians of Hope and their wives. Guests present were Dr. and Mrs. James W. Branch, Dr. and Mrs. C. Lynn Harris, Dr. and Mrs. Jim McKenzie and Dr. and Mrs. George H. Wright.

"If there is a better quarterback in pro football, I don't know who it would be," Kansas City Coach Hank Stram said of Len Dawson.

"I can't say they're the best two running backs, but just look at what they've done the last two weeks," Dallas Coach Tom Landry said of Duane Thomas and Calvin Hill.

Dawson masterminded a last-ditch 93-yard drive that ended in Jan Stenerud's 10-yard field goal which catapulted the Chiefs to a 16-14 victory over Oakland Sunday and the American Conference West championship.

And the Thomas-Hill tandem rushed for 183 yards and accounted for four touchdowns in Dallas' 42-14 shellacking of the New York Giants that put the Cowboys on the edge of the National Conference East throne.

In Sunday's other National Football League games, San Francisco smothered Atlanta 24-3, San Diego bombed Denver 45-17, Green Bay belted Chicago 31-10, Philadelphia beat St. Louis 19-7, the New York Jets defeated New England 13-6, Cleveland edged New Orleans 21-17, Pittsburgh turned back Cincinnati 21-13 and Houston topped Buffalo 20-14. On Saturday Minnesota beat Detroit 29-10 to take the NFC Central title and Baltimore whipped Miami 14-3.

In tonight's nationally televised ABC 9 p.m. EST game, Washington is at Los Angeles.

"Lenny cut the defense like a surgeon on that last drive," Stram raved. Otis Taylor, who wound up with 113 yards in pass receptions, caught three Dawson passes for 28 yards in the winning surge and an interference penalty on another pass to him accounted for 29 more. Stram called Taylor's catches on the march "one of the greatest individual efforts I have ever seen."

It is Kansas City's first divisional title since 1966—although in 1969, after finishing second to Oakland in the regular season, the Chiefs whipped the Raiders in the playoffs, then went on to rout Minnesota in the Super Bowl.

Taylor also caught a 29-yard touchdown pass and Stenerud booted earlier field goals of 33 and 14 yards in the triumph that wrecked a heroic performance by quarterback George Blanda, who came off the bench to guide the Raiders from a 10-0 deficit to a 14-13 jumper. Scott, James Robinson, and Mike Hobson all hit shots to give the Bobkittens the lead, 15-12, with just under two minutes left in the half, and with James Williams and Harris finishing the half, Hope held a 21-16 margin while heading for the dressing room.

All through the third period the Kittens held their margin, if only by one point, and after moving into the final period of play, Hope held a narrow 27-25 lead, but the Kittens scored quickly to take a four point margin. However, a four point lead just couldn't hold up long enough as the Kittens hit a cold streak and allowed the Warriors to overtake them with 1:32 left in the game.

Trying desperately to make a comeback for victory, Hope hit foul trouble and, although outscoring Ouachita in the final minute and a half, 6-5, the one point made a big difference.

Scott led the Kittens with 14 points, followed by Harris netting 10, Williams, getting six, Hobson hitting four, Robinson two, and Jim Rhodes sacking one point.

Midway through the period, East hit five straight free throws and then came back for three more just before the end of the first half, but when the half was over, the scoreboard still favored Prescott with a commanding lead, 33-19, while Hope was trying to solve a way to stop the Cubettes forwards.

Falling behind early in the third quarter by as much as 19 points, the Kittycats soon found the range and they came roaring back to trail at the end of the period by just eight points, 42-34.

However, after moving into the final stanza, Hope just couldn't overtake the Prescott lead, although coming within five after Griffen put in two points with 1:15 left in the game.

East led Hope with 32 points, followed by Griffen with eight and Henley with three. Janie York, Bonnie Roy, and Melissa Reece were credited with some fine defensive plays.

In the second contest, the Kittens had the same fate, as they fell behind early, 8-3, and trailed while moving into the second period, 8-5, after Johnny Harris hit a jump shot with only a few seconds remaining in the period.

Hope hit a hot streak at the outset of the second stanza, taking the tipoff and scoring quickly on Marshall Scott's long fourth quarter lead on a pair of Marv Hubbard one-yard touchdowns.

The Cowboys opened a one-game lead over Washington and can clinch the divisional crown if the Redskins tie or lose tonight.

While Thomas rambled for 94 yards and touchdowns of three and seven yards, Hill tacked on 89, including a four-yard scoring run, and added 50 more on four receptions, one of them a 10-yarder from Roger Staubach for a touchdown.

And Staubach, who has quarterbacked the Cowboys to six successive victories since winning the starting job outright, teamed with Bob Hayes for scoring bombs of 46 and 85 yards.

John Brodie passed 23 yards to Larry Schrieber for one touchdown and bootlegged the ball five yards for another as the 49ers, limiting the Falcons' total offense to 130 yards, pulled into a temporary first-place tie—with the Rams in the NFC West.

John Hadl of the Chargers completed 21 of 36 passes for 332 yards and four touchdowns, including two to Jeff Queen and a 77-yard bomb to Gary Garrison, to lock the Broncos in the AFC West basement.

"I wasn't counting or anything," Packers running back John Brockington said after he ran for 63 yards and a touchdown against the Bears to become the NFL's 25th 1,000-yard rusher and only the fourth rookie to reach the mark. He now has 1,032.

Tom Dempsey booted the Eagles to their fifth victory in eight games and past the Cardinals into third place in the NFC East with four field goals, one from 54 yards, while Pete Liske combined with Harold Jackson for a 69-yard touchdown strike.

The Patriots-Jets game was billed as an aerial war between Jim Plunkett and Joe Namath, but neither threw a touchdown.

The only one of the game came on John Riggins' one-yard plunge following Phil Wise's fumble recovery on the New England five. New York's Bobby Howfield and the Pats' Charlie Gogolak each kicked a pair of field goals.

"I was going to use (Terry) Bradshaw only if I had to—and I had to," Pittsburgh Coach Chuck Noll said after the Steelers' quarterback came off the bench to fire a pair of last-period touchdowns and beat the Bengals.

UCLA Runs Up Score on Texas Ags

By KEN RAPPOPORT

"All we want to do now is go home," said Texas A&M basketball coach Shelby Metcalf.

You would, too, after spending an outrageous evening with UCLA.

The top-ranked Bruins gave Metcalf's crew a rousing send-off back to Texas, railroading the Aggies 117-53 at cozy Pauley Pavilion Saturday night.

"Tremendous, just tremendous," said Metcalf, praising the bullish Bruins.

UCLA Coach John Wooden was almost apologetic after the laughter: "I don't like to win games by overwhelming margins."

The Bruin blitz wasn't as shocking as some of Saturday's other results as upsets claimed three other Top Ten teams.

Ohio University surprised fourth-ranked Ohio State 79-68, Southwestern Louisiana topped No. 6 Long Beach State 90-83 in the finals of the Bayou Classic at Lafayette, La., and Indiana pulled out a nervous 90-89 double-overtime victory over seventh-ranked Kentucky.

Second-ranked Marquette had an easy time with ninth-ranked Michigan, whipping the Wolverines 81-52 in a mild surprise.

North Carolina, the country's No. 3 club, wallowed Virginia Tech 93-60 and No. 8 Jacksonville trimmed Georgia Southern 106-88 in other games involving Top Ten teams. Fifth-ranked Maryland and No. 10 Penn had Saturday night off.

Wooden, who claims he likes to keep scores down by "using all my players," apparently didn't have too much luck in that respect against overwhelmed Texas A&M. Almost everyone he played had a hand in the Aggie demise.

The foremost of his Aggie killers, however, was sophomore center Bill Walton, who scored 23 points, blocked numerous shots and used his imposing, 6-foot-11 stature to bully everyone under the basket.

"I always thought the Lord divided things equally," said Metcalf, "but He gave it all to him (Walton)."

Asked if his players might have been awed at Pauley Pavilion, a noisy chamber of terrors for visiting teams, Metcalf responded: "I don't know about my players, but I sure as hell was," he said. "I'd like to forget about this place."

It may be hard for Metcalf to forget the nightmare right away. It could be that he'll have recurring bad dreams about Walton bolting to the backboards or forward Ken Wilkes shooting the eyes out of the basket with 22 points before sitting down.

En route to the easy triumph, the undefeated Bruins did something they've never done before—score 100 points in a game four straight times.

PS: Bob Gobin and Mario Brown led the losers with 10 points apiece.

Tom Ricciardi scored 27 points and Tom Corde had 21 to lead Ohio's triumph over heavily favored Ohio State.

"They dictated the offense to us," said Ohio State Coach Fred Taylor. "They controlled the game. Ricciardi and Corde really hurt us."

"Ohio just worked a lot harder than we did. We'd get a piece of the ball always, but they'd come back with it and put it back in the hole. We got second and third shots, but they wouldn't drop for us."

It helped Ohio to play the game at home, according to Bobcat Coach Jim Snyder: "The home crowd is just like a sixth player," he said.

Led by top shot Dwight Lamar, little-publicized Southwestern Louisiana smacked Long Beach State. Lamar tallied 38 points, about four over his season's average, as the surprising Ragin' Cajuns whipped their third Top Twenty team this year.

Ed Ratleff led the losers with 26 points and, along with Lamar, was chosen co-winner of the outstanding player trophy in the two-day Bayou Classic. Ironically, Lamar and Ratleff were teammates at Columbus East High School in Ohio.

Center Steve Downing scored 47 points and claimed 25 rebounds to lead Indiana over Kentucky. The classy Hoosier junior scored five points in the second overtime period and Jerry Memering sank a final free throw for the eventual winning point.

Led by top shot Dwight Lamar, little-publicized Southwestern Louisiana smacked Long Beach State. Lamar tallied 38 points, about four over his season's average, as the surprising Ragin' Cajuns whipped their third Top Twenty team this year.

Ed Ratleff led the losers with 26 points and, along with Lamar, was chosen co-winner of the outstanding player trophy in the two-day Bayou Classic. Ironically, Lamar and Ratleff were teammates at Columbus East High School in Ohio.

Center Steve Downing scored 47 points and claimed 25 rebounds to lead Indiana over Kentucky. The classy Hoosier junior scored five points in the second overtime period and Jerry Memering sank a final free throw for the eventual winning point.

In games involving Second Ten teams, 11th-ranked South Carolina won the Cable Car Classic in San Francisco by beating California 67-57; No. 12 Houston beat No. 17 Arizona State 88-76; No. 13 Southern California stopped Utah 79-67; No. 14 St. John's, N.Y. defeated Seton Hall 103-84; No. 15 Brigham Young downed Creighton 96-68 and No. 16 Louisville defeated Kansas 74-65. Florida State, tied with Villanova for No. 18, defeated Valdosta State 134-65, while Villanova lost to Princeton 82-68.

TCU Only Unbeaten SWC Team

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

And then there was one—the Texas Christian Horned Frogs.

The defending champions are the only Southwest Conference Basketball team with an unblemished record after two weeks of intersectional warfare against some of the best teams in the land.

And TCU's going to remain undefeated after the week, too.

The Horned Frogs don't play again until Dec. 21.

TCU owns a 3-0 record after blistering Wyoming 84-79 and Oklahoma City 115-111 last week.

The fast-improving Baylor Bears didn't do bad. They jumped their record to 5-1 with four solid victories last week.

The scalps included victories of 81-77 over LSU, 78-73 over Abilene Christian, 79-64 over Lamar, and 90-78 over Tulane.

The only other SWC teams with winning records include Texas Tech and Texas with 3-2 records.

The SWC now holds a 23-18 margin over outsiders.

The biggest disaster of the week befell Southern Methodist which had looked impressive defeating Vanderbilt the week before. The Mustangs dropped three games on the road to Oklahoma City, Wichita State and Nebraska.

The Texas Aggies suffered the worst defeat. They were soundly whipped by defending national champion UCLA 117-53 at Los Angeles.

The SWC has a light week to regroup. The only games tonight show The Athletics in Action at Texas and Oklahoma State at Arkansas. Southwest Texas is at Texas A&M Tuesday night, Baylor is at the Husker Classic in Lincoln, Neb., Friday and Saturday nights, and Georgia Tech is at SMU and Texas Tech is at Tulsa Saturday night.

Rookie Ralph Johnston had a field goal.

Livingston got the game-winning score after a punt died on the Tech four. Two running plays were stopped and Fisher's third-down pass was picked off at the Tech 41 by Joe Nettles, who returned it 25 yards.

On third and 11, Spruiell dropped back to pass, but was forced to scramble and reached the two before being knocked down. Larry Lightfoot scored from the two with 7:58 left in the third period.

Tech's best drive began from its own 18 with less than eight minutes left in the fourth period. Larry Brown and Fisher helped the Wonder Boys reach the Livingston 16 where Fisher was mobbed on fourth and six.

The Wonder Boys got one last chance after Livingston took an intentional safety and Shepherd returned the free kick 20 yards to midfield with 10 seconds left. After two incomplete passes, the championship belonged to the Tigers.

Tech had scored 403 points during the season while rolling up a 12-0 record. Livingston had permitted its 11 opponents only 88 points.

Tech offensive coach Don Sevier said the Tigers were able to control the Wonder Boys' offense because of the ability of defensive linemen Herbie Malone (250) and Ricky Kemp (235).

"If you've got people in there like that, that you can't handle with a double-team block, the Wishbone is in bad trouble," Sevier said. "They (Malone and Kemp) left their middle linebacker free, and they could get all the help they needed out on the flanks for the option."

"They whipped us good at the line of scrimmage," Sevier said. "And you know what happens when you get whipped there. You get beat."

Goalby Winner of Bahama Open

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Golf Writer

FREEMONT, G.B.I. (AP) — "I had all my eggs in one basket in this one round," a smiling and admittedly excited Bob Goalby said.

He was talking about final round 70, a steady one-under-par effort under tremendous pressure Sunday that brought him a one-stroke victory in the $130,000 Bahama Islands Open Golf Tournament.

More importantly, at least for the 40-year-old Goalby, it secured him an exemption from the qualifying rounds for next year's regular tour events.

Goalby, who had had a poor season, had to win this last event on the pro schedule to make it.

"I'm pretty excited, maybe as much as I have ever been," he said after sinking short par putts on the final two holes to win the $26,000 first prize and a spot in the top 60 money winners—the determining factor in making the exempt list.

"It's a matter of prestige," said Goalby, winner of 11 titles in his pro career that started in 1957. "I didn't even know how much money it was for first place. I just knew that I had to win it. It's very important to me."

The victory pushed his 1971 earnings to $45,833.43 for the year and 51st place.

George Archer took second prize of $14,800. Archer, leader through the second and third rounds, finished with a 72 for 276. He closed out the year with $147,769, fourth on the list behind the absent Jack Nicklaus, Lee Trevino and Arnold Palmer.

Bert Yancey had a final round 71 for 277 and a tie with Tommy Aaron for third. Aaron had a five-under-par 66, best round of the final day on the Lucayan Country Club Course.

Rookie Ralph Johnston had a field goal.

Ouachita Meets Henderson in AIC Contest

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The two top-ranked teams in the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference, Ouachita Baptist University and Henderson State, will clash in basketball action Monday night at Henderson. Both teams have seven wins and no losses for the season. In conference play Ouachita is 4-0 and Henderson is 3-0. This week's AIC schedule ends conference action for the AIC until after the holidays. Most of the teams have inter-sectional games slated during the holiday break, with AIC action resuming Jan. 3. Monday night Ouachita will play Henderson and Arkansas Tech will be at State College of Arkansas.

ASU Indians Score 1st Win Over Centenary
SHREVEPORT, La. (AP)—Arkansas State University's basketball team broke into the victory column Saturday night after opening the season with two losses. The Indians, behind big John Belcher, blasted Centenary 76-64. The 6-foot-9 Belcher scored 26 points and pulled down 20 rebounds. Centenary took a 40-38 half-time lead after hitting 55 per cent of its shots from the field. The Indians rallied as Belcher scored 18 of his points in the second half. ASU trailed by seven points with 12 minutes left to play, but nine minutes later the Indians held an eight point lead. The Indians connected on 53 per cent of their shots from the field and held a 51-28 rebounding edge.

Night
6:00 Americans From Africa	2	Washington (AP) -- The Nixon administration's version of a Mideast military balance is an Israel strong enough to defend against an Arab attack into territory she now holds—but not mighty enough to strike deep into Egypt.
Truth Or Consequences	3	The United States is committed to preventing the balance of power from swinging against Israel. But just what constitutes a "balance" is usually in some disagreement.
News	4-6-7-11-12	The United States has yet to supply the additional Phantom jets Israel wants.
6:30 Extension '71	2	According to the U.S. estimate, Israel's army of some 285,000 men is superior to Egypt's 400,000-man army and Jordan's 100,000-man force combined. The navies of the opposing sides are too small to make much difference either way.
Mod Squad	3-7	Air power is rated a key factor. On this, the U.S. analysts say more planes for Egypt would do her little good now because she lacks the pilots to fly them.
Little Drummer Boy	4-6	They say Israel has enough planes for defense over the land she now holds, and that a larger Israeli air force might have the power to range through Egypt—and suffer unacceptably high losses.
Glen Campbell	11-12	Israeli planes flying into Egypt would face missile defenses emplaced since the 1967 war, and possibly Soviet as well as Egyptian planes. In 1967 the Israelis were able to launch a pre-emptive strike, destroying much of Egypt's air force on the ground.
7:00 Education News And Views	2	The U.S. calculation presumes that under a "balance" the Israelis would be able to repel Arab attackers without overly heavy losses to Israel.
Bing Crosby And The Sounds Of Christmas	4-6	It figures Egypt's canal-crossing capability is as yet limited, though Israel would suffer more losses now in repelling an Arab invasion than it did in the brief 1967 fight.
7:30 Book Beat	2	But Soviet offensive strikes or other operations over Israeli-held territory could quickly tip the scale against Israel.

One-Fourth of Mankind

( The Sage of Lu )

by Don Oakley and John Lane

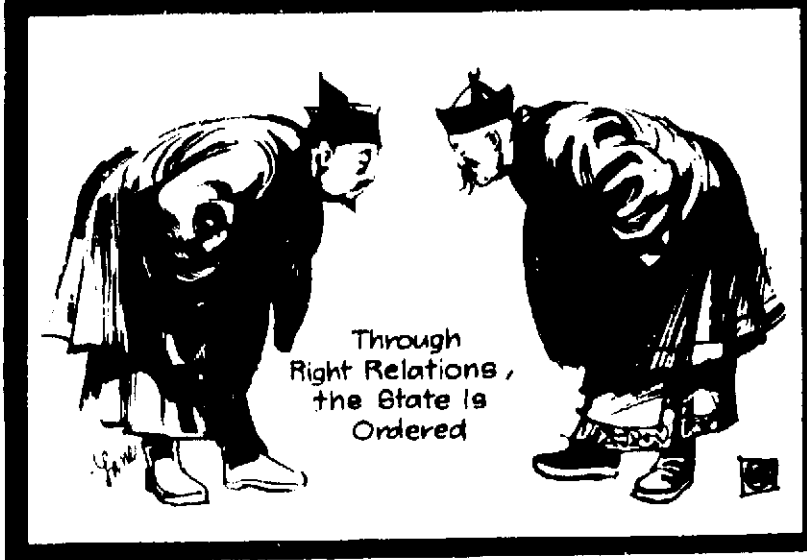

If the Prince Is Virtuous, the People Will Be Also

Do not to others what you would not have them do to you.

—Confucius

Scholars Administer, Guided By the Classic Wisdom

Through Right Relations, the State Is Ordered

China in the middle of the long, 900-year Chou dynasty was a nation in political and intellectual ferment.

As the old feudalism broke down around them and independent, constantly warring states arose, philosophers sought answers to the ills of men and society. As armies clashed, so did minds, setting off brilliant sparks.

The greatest of these philosophers was born in 551 B.C. in the small state of Lu (modern Shantung). His name was K'ung Fu-tzu, known to the West as Confucius.

To Confucius, the ideal society was ruled by men of superior morality: "The virtue of the superior man is like wind and the virtue of the people is like grass. The grass bends in the direction the wind blows."

Confucius was not a democrat. In his society, each man knew his place: "Courtesy is not extended to the common people, and punishment is not served up to the lords."

But since morality, and hence the right to govern, were the products of learning, there were no rigid class bars to individual advancement.

Neither was he an innovator: "I have transmitted and do not create anew." He believed Chinese society had reached perfection in the days of the sage-kings and preached a return to an antiquity that had never existed.

"The ancients . . . desiring to order well their states, first regulated their families. Wishing to regulate their families, they first . . . rectified their hearts."

Thus a society in which the proper relationships were observed—between king and subjects, between friend and friend, between father and son, etc.—would be one of harmony. "Love people," said Confucius.

Though he set great store by ritual and observance of religious rites and believed that the universe was on the side of righteousness, Confucius had little use for heaven or an afterlife or disputations about a supreme being.

"You do not yet know about the living," he said. "How can you know about the dead?"

Like an Oriental Diogenes, Confucius wandered from court to court looking for an honest prince who would put his teachings into practice. None would, and Confucius died in 479 B.C. thinking himself a failure, unaware that his ideas, transmitted and elaborated and sometimes distorted by generations of disciples, were to influence more human lives than those of perhaps any teacher who ever lived.

By Oswald & James Jacoby

Oswald: "In JACOBY MODERN we point out that a hand is either worth an opening bid of one or it isn't. This rule applies in any seat, vulnerable or not. An expert might occasionally shave a bid in third or fourth seat, but he never should go haywire. Today's hand shows a typical example of expert idiosyncrasy."

Jim: "West's one-heart opening certainly qualifies. He has 11 high-card points including three for the singleton king. There is nothing wrong with a pass, but if he wants to open in third seat he should bid one club. He has good cards in that suit and if the opponents buy the hand he will have told his partner what to lead."

Oswald: "I was the unfortunate East. If I had been clairvoyant I could have bid clubs and got out of the trap but I chose to bid one trump."

Jim: "Nothing wrong with that bid. You have a book call of one no-trump after the heart opening and the double." Oswald: "As you can see we would probably make three clubs although perfect defense might beat us one trick. We also figure to beat two spades, but we didn't. It seems that no one played diamonds until very late. Eventually I did lead my diamond six. By this time South was sure about the location of the king and went up with his ace and dropped it."

Jim: "A final minus for that silly heart bid." (NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE ASSN.)

Boy Dies After Medical Tests

Should Mom Sue for Neglect?

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

Dear Dr. Lamb—My son entered the hospital for evaluation of a duodenal ulcer and urinary tract infection. He was a 22-year-old quadriplegic, injured in a water skiing accident at age 17. He worked hard to get back what movement he could. He was very strong and healthy and even married. He left his wife with a strong healthy boy. On a Thursday I took his wife and son to see him and he looked so good and was working hard with the therapist. The next day his wife called and said my son was in critical condition and we rushed to the hospital.

The coroner's report stated he died from hyperthermia and convulsive disorder following injection into a chronic draining sacral sinus. About four hours after the procedure the decedent went into convulsions and his temperature went to 110 degrees and remained there until hypothermia brought the temperature down.

Needless to say, Dr. Lamb, this was a terrible blow. We think it was the fault of the doctor. Please write in your column what you think. We are of modest means and lawyers are so expensive. We feel we have a good case against the hospital.

Can I as a mother do anything about it? His wife has remarried. She is a very sweet girl and she does not want to sue, but my son keeps talking to me in my dreams and I feel I must do something.

The only reason I want to sue is to insure the baby of a good education and a better life. It might help protect some other person from neglect. What should we do?

Dear Reader—I understand how distressed you must feel, particularly after having seen your son overcome his handicap and build a new life for himself.

It isn't possible for me to be certain what happened but it sounds like a reaction to the dye that must have been injected to X ray the extent of the sinus. This was probably done in an effort to locate the problem of his kidney infection.

Quadruplegies do not have as good a sweating mechanism as healthy people, and this may have been a factor in the sharp rise in body temperature.

It isn't always possible to predict who will have an adverse reaction to a procedure ordinarily considered as safe. I doubt your doctor really did anything negligent. More likely it was an unforeseen and unpredictable complication.

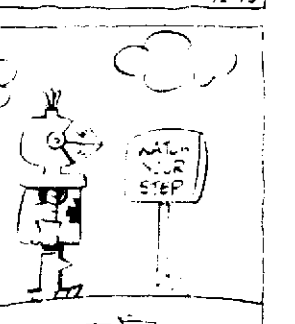

To sue is one thing—to win League to three points over Boston and Montreal.

The Bruins were beaten by California 4-2 and Montreal bowed to Philadelphia 4-1.

Chicago padded its West Division advantage to four points over Minnesota, downing the North Stars 5-3, and Toronto defeated Buffalo 4-2 in other NHL games.

Park's three goals—two on almost identical power-play slap shots within three minutes of the second period—were the most ever by a New York defenseman in a game. The NHL record for goals in a game by a defenseman is four. Only five players have done it, none since 1929.

Holdings of Secretary of Commerce Questioned

By H. L. SCHWARTZ III
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A private foundation controlled by Secretary of Commerce Maurice H. Stans has acquired since he took office an interest in a Thailand paper company which directly benefits from U.S. government cash and other assistance.

In response to written questions from the Associated Press, Stans called the $24,302 investment in Siam Kraft Paper Co. "very minor," said he got no income from the Stans Foundation, and "couldn't conceive" of any tax breaks normally associated with such foundations as being available to him.

"There is nothing whatsoever in this situation that could conceivably involve conflict of interest," Stans said.

Disclosure of Stans' involvement in the Thailand company, founded on a $14-million

LR Catholic, FS Northside Boast 11 All-Staters

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Little Rock Catholic and Fort Smith Northside, co-champions of AAAA, placed a total of 11 players on the AAAA All-State team.

Catholic's representatives included offensive linemen Don Paladino and Bob Hendrick; offensive backs Pat Campbell and Terry Blaylock; linebacker Steve Filipek and defensive back Mike Duke.

Northside players named to the team were offensive linemen Art Capehart and Lee Lewis; offensive back Roger Carter; defensive lineman Ivan Jordan and defensive halfback Tommy Cheyne.

Capehart was named the outstanding lineman in the conference and Carter was chosen as the outstanding back.

Others named to the offensive unit were:

Linemen — Oliver Demery and Bruce Johnson, both of Pine Bluff.

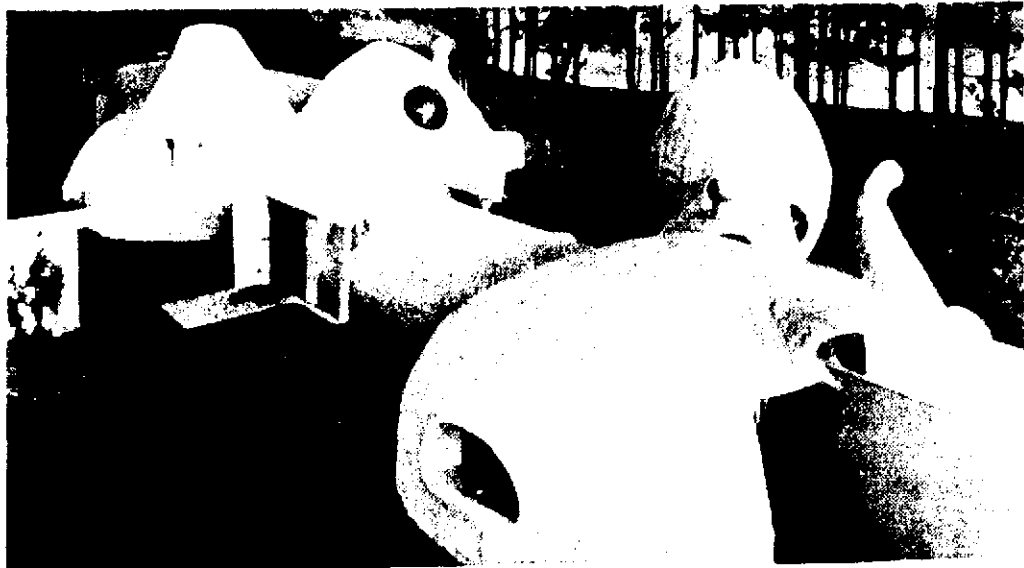

Backs — Walter Rowan and Craig Robbins, both of Little Rock Hall and Marc Menefee, El Dorado.

Others named to the defensive unit were:

Linemen — Charles Cummings, Little Rock Hall; Bo Garrett, El Dorado; Spencer Burroughs, Little Rock Central and Gregory Burl, North Little Rock Northeast.

Linebackers — Eddie Peters, Little Rock Hall and David Taylor, El Dorado.

Backs — Paul Adams, North Little Rock.

could be the home of the future if an experimental technique of spraying liquid urethane on a fabric form catches on. Six of the resulting domes linked by passageways form a free-form, cave-like house. Rooms feature skylights to increase light. Living room, right, stresses built-in. Inverted dome, below, becomes a sun-dish, maintaining constant temperature because of shape and insulating qualities of urethane. The Soft-Edge (to distinguish it from "hard" or conventional rectilinear houses) design was developed by WestPoint Peperell.

Accidents in Arkansas Claim Five

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Five persons, including a driver trying to outrun the State Police, were killed in traffic accidents in Arkansas this weekend.

The Associated Press weekend highway fatality count began at 6 p.m. Friday and ended at midnight Sunday.

State Police said Cleland F. Chadwick, 21, of Leslie (Searcy County) was killed Sunday evening in a high speed chase with police on Arkansas 14, near the Pleasant Grove community in Stone County.

A spokesman for the State Police said the accident occurred when a State Police trooper attempted to stop the car driven by Chadwick for a tail light violation. The trooper reported Chadwick's car reached speeds of 115 miles an hour before he lost control of the car and it overturned.

Two persons in Chadwick's car were injured. They were identified as Norman D. Williams, 15, of Jonesboro, and Phyllis McDaniel, 18, of Marshall.

Others killed this weekend were identified as:

—James Balletine, 32, of Newport, when his car went out of control and overturned on Arkansas 14 near Newport Friday night.

—Mike Jackson, 20, of near Batesville and Dean Hensley, 52, of Tuckerman, Friday night when their cars collided headon on U.S. 67 north of Tuckerman.

—T. G. Gage, 35, of Prairie Grove, Saturday when his motorcycle was struck by a car attempting to pass another car on U.S. 62 near Prairie Grove.

This Dog Has a Bite of Real Gold

SAN CARLOS, Calif. (AP) — With a bite of gold, five-year-old Snoopy is top dog in this

Monday, December 13, 1971

San Francisco suburb.

The mixed dachshund-beagle got a $40 gold crown on one of its teeth recently after breaking the tooth in an automobile accident.

"It's no big thing," said veterinarian Robert Maahs. "It was a cosmetic and functional move."

Maahs said stainless steel crowns have been used on the teeth of cattle and armed service guards dogs—but probably never gold. He said it was used on Snoopy because it was easily molded.
